

SCRIPT FOR LEADER TO READ TO THE AUDIENCE

(feel free to use an English accent)

Welcome to MONTY PYTHON AND THE HOLY GRAIL.

No matter how many times you have seen the movie, and this may be your first time on the BIG screen, we KNOW you know many of its most famous lines.

So, as a warm-up, we are going to do a little contest.

Whoever first finishes the following quotes will get a set of coconuts.

Ready?

1. We are the Knights who say(Ni)
2. She turned me into a..... (newt)
3. We eat ham and jam and (spam a lot)
4. I fart (in your general direction)
5. Let's not argue (about who killed who)
6. Run Away! (Run Away!)
7. What is your favorite (color)
8. You're using (coconuts)

Now, as you watch the movie, you'll see we have put up on the screen lots of quotes and words of the songs and chants and we want you to be free to call them out as characters from the movie.

You'll be surprised how many you know and your friends will be very impressed.

And while you're at it, use your coconuts whenever you see the knights riding their horses.

So here's the movie and enjoy being part of a new Monty Python and the Holy Grail experience.
